

Richards Ramble:

"Why is it always me who apologises". This was said by me to Carolyn as we walked through another crowd narrowly missing other people or dancing to get around someone else who was coming straight towards me. I am finding that there is an increasing rudeness and ignorance within the general populace and an intolerance towards other people who might 'get in the way'. I say this as on observation more than anything else. The answer to my question is, "Because I'm a Christian". It is not that we are there to be trodden on but that we are called to exercise grace and forgiveness towards those around us. We are called to follow the example of the master who 'as a sheep before its shearers is silent so he opened not his mouth' (Isaiah 53:7). In a society where we see standards of common decency diminishing, we are called to be different – to be an example to the world of what it is like to walk as Jesus walked and to be agents of his grace to those around us.

God bless, Richard

St Nicholas'

Join us for a brilliant evening of music with Yvonne Lyon, Gareth Davies-Jones and David Lyon. This acclaimed group of singer-songwriters bring music from their new collaboration, Trace The Line. Songs from the album capture the challenging, inspiring and powerful words from Jesus' Sermon on the Mount. It is a follow-up to their 2016 album, The Spacer Between. All three artists are Christians, but their music has a much wider appeal and has recently featured on the Mark Radcliffe show on BBC Radio 2, as well as BBC Wales and BBC Scotland. The gig includes a warm welcome, an interval with an opportunity to meet the musicians and purchase CDs, as well as a licensed bar with craft beers, good wine and soft drinks at sensible prices. A great evening out! Tickets are £14, and can be purchased online via Eventbrite on our concerts page, or contact the parish office stnicksoffice@gmail.com or from Jacob's Well Shop, Beverley.
