

Richards Ramble:

"For unto us a child is born". Underlying all the tinsel and the wrapping of the season, this is the fundamental truth that we celebrate. However, in the gross commercialism of this time of year, this truth can often become obscured or lost in the haze of busyness, family, eating and drinking, presents, trees, and the like. The birth we celebrate is like no other that has occurred since the foundation of the world because in that one tiny bundle, born in Bethlehem, was the perfect combining of Godhood and Manhood. For a short time, the glory of God was veiled in a human body and walked amongst us, "and we beheld his glory, glory as of the only begotten of the Father; full of grace and truth." May the wonder of that awesome event never elude us!

God bless, Richard
