Richards Ramble:

We are about to enter the first week of December. This is the clearest signal yet that Christmas is coming. It tells us that we need to get a move on with sending cards, buying presents, putting up decorations, etc. For churches, there are extra activities such as cabarets, carol services and festivals of various sorts. All in all, it is a busy season.

Back, two thousand years ago, the first signal that Christmas was on its way was when the angel appeared to Zacharias in the temple to tell him that his barren wife was about to become pregnant. Of course, the child she would bear would be John the Baptist who would herald the coming of the Messiah. The preparation period for John's birth also included a visit by Mary which saw John leaps for joy in Mary's womb.

In the midst of the busyness of Christmas, may we also leap for joy as we celebrate once more the coming of the Messiah.

God bless. Richard

Every 1st Sunday of the month following the service.

Family and friends are very welcome!

Please sign the list at the back of the hall if you are willing to provide food.
