

BCC News!

Richard's Ramble! "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times". So opens Charles Dickens' A Tale of Two Cities. This paradox reflects much of life. Often when things are going well in one area of our life, they do not go so well in another area and that can cause a cloud which obscures the good. We all have much to thank God for and yet sometimes the difficulties can overwhelm us such that we live in the gloom. This is a very real challenge that many of us face from time to time and it is not always easy to move back into the light.

I am not seeking to offer any trite answers here. Emotions are fickle things that cannot always be controlled. They can often seem more real than the truth, or can make the problems and issues seem bigger than the good things in our lives. So what can we do about them? As I said, there are no easy answers but here is a list of suggestions. 1. Give the issue to God. He is willing to help and to carry our burdens. 2. Speak truth. Remind yourself of the positive things God has done in your life. 3. Give thanks, not for the issue, but for the goodness of God towards you. 4. Pray. Pray for the situation and invite God into it. 5. Praise. Praise can often lift our spirits and enable us to rise above the circumstances. 6. Talk. Often talking to someone and knowing that they are standing with us can help. 7. Keep going. When we are on a difficult road, sometimes the only way out of it is to keep putting one foot in front of the other. God bless, Richard.

Monday Afternoon Prayer Group.

I really value going every other Monday afternoon to the prayer group which takes place at the church office. I find it so hard to have regular, "quality" quiet times in which I can put other distractions aside to enjoy being with God. It helps me to have this definite regular slot in my diary where I spend a full hour praying and listening to God. When we first arrive, there are prayer stations all around the room with resources which help us to focus on different scriptures or topics to pray about quietly on our own. Later, we grab cushions and get comfortable to listen to a guided meditation. I've found the Christian meditations really useful for helping me to meet with God in prayer. Towards the end of the session, we join as a group to chat, and we often pray for each other before closing. It's a small, friendly group and a good opportunity to meet and pray with people who do not usually come along to church.
