Richards Ramble:

November has always been an important month for me. As a child, I always loved 5th November fireworks and bonfires. within a week was my birthday, and then followed the anticipation leading up to Christmas. Even playing conkers in the cold (and feeling the pain in my knuckles as a conker smashed into them), and chilly mornings as my breath formed 'steam' in the frosty air was part of the fun of the season. These days, I am not so keen on the cold at this time of year but the memories remain. Every season brings its own pleasure and pain and each one of us, I am sure, has a favourite season. These days, as I get older, I prefer the heat of summer (no matter how hot it gets) to the cold of winter. The truth is that God is with us through every season. I am not just talking about meteorology now. I mean through the pleasure and pain that life brings. He is with us in every moment. In our winter, he is the bright sun; in our summer, he is the cool breeze. Every day, he is the one who brings comfort and strength. God bless, Richard
