

BCC News!

Richard's Ramble! September has been a busy month! From One Event I went immediately to India. On return from India, I was then in London and so forth. I have been running just to catch up with myself. This week has been spent two days with Groundlevel and two days with Churches Together for England, which will leave me conferenced out! People often express concerns for me, for which I'm grateful. I try and build in rest spots into my schedule which help me to restore my soul and body. I also try and keep fit to help with my overall sense of wellbeing. However, the most important restorative process is time with God. This is the air that keeps me alive. This is the water that refreshes my soul. This is the source of my being. I don't say this to boast - we can all improve our prayer life. I say it simply to say that I can't live without it. We are born again for relationship with God and therefore this relationship has to be the foundation of our life. Many struggle to pray - there are aids available to help with this. Many struggle to find time for prayer, but we need to build it into our schedule to grow strong. Seven days without prayer makes one weak! This month, think about how and when you pray. I would encourage you to make more of your relationship with God. If you struggle, ask for prayer! God bless, Richard.

Note to self...
 God promises to refresh
 and restore my soul, and because He is my Shepherd, there is nothing I shall lack or need.

LIFE COACHING

So often we are too busy to take time to look at our lives and see if they are going in the direction we want them to. It is as though our life runs itself and we just go along with it. The good news is that we can take control and make changes. We have more choices and more power than we realise. We choose the friends we have in our lives, we choose where we live, what job or career we have. Much of this is done subconsciously, without us even being aware of the choices we have made. However, many of the things we put into our lives are governed by our expectations of ourselves, what we think we deserve. Life coaching is about taking time out to consider the different areas in your life, to visualise how you want your life to be and to plan steps to make to achieve this. You will be guided to do this and supported to make the changes.

BCC Breakfast! Sunday 6th Nov. Before the morning Service.

The 16-21's would like to serve some people in the church, probably over the half term (end of October).

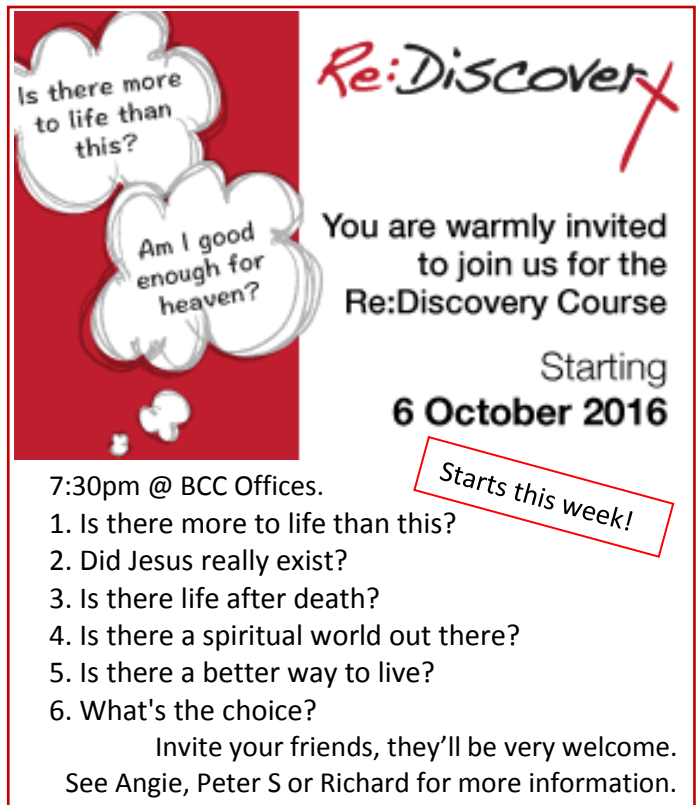

If you have a job which you would like them to do, for example gardening, shopping, babysitting, car cleaning please let Angie know your name and the job. The job has to be less than 2 hours. We will then choose one or two of you at random. Also some are willing to cook a meal in someone's home, serve and wash up. Especially good for someone who is out at work all day, or someone with a young family? If you would like that to be you give your name to Angie. Again someone will be chosen at random. If you are chosen then the dates will be agreed with you.

'How do you commit to a disciplined prayer life?'

A disciplined prayer life is one of the most difficult achievements of our Christian walk, mainly because of the pace of life and the number of distractions we all face. There is no 'one size fits all' approach that can be applied and we must each find our own way of doing this. What is certain is that we need to build it into our daily routine - it won't happen unless we plan and make room for it. We each need to find a time for us. For me, it is to my bed first thing in the morning. We also need some structure if our thoughts are not to wander off. I begin with the Lord's Prayer each day (expanding on each phrase). I then pray for those I have committed myself to pray for regularly. I then pray for any presenting concerns in the family or church. From then on, as I walk and go about my daily business, I talk to the Lord and listen for his responses. Ultimately, committing to prayer is committing to spending time with God. If we want to do that, we will pray.
